

Watercolor Lesson of a Peony

New England School of Fine Art presents
Washed in Watercolor

Unlike any other medium, watercolor offers a bountiful array of wonderful techniques. From glazing to spattering, these unique properties may be found in all successful watercolor paintings. In this class, students will have the opportunity to learn from weekly demonstrations and apply newly learned methods to their work. Subject matter will be provided and may range from landscapes to still lifes and portraits. Projects are bi-weekly. Beginning students are encouraged to practice the techniques while advanced students may work independently on their own projects with guidance.

Instructor: Award winning artist, Jo Ellen Reinhardt, shares with you her passion for painting! To see Jo Ellen's work, check out her site at www.joellenreinhardt.com
