

Advanced Painting

This class is for the advanced or professional artist, who is comfortable using their media, but is looking for advice and guidance while tackling their own independent project. This is a great opportunity to surround yourself with other artists. Weekly lessons rotate between lectures, demonstrations, and critiques. This semester's lectures and demonstrations will be based on perspective. Most demonstrations are in watercolor. Both the instructor and peers give constructive comments during critiques. Please bring in projects and chosen media. One class will be devoted to Plein Air Painting.
