

Portrait Drawing & Painting

With Jo Ellen Reinhardt

Learning to draw and paint the portrait is a delightful journey. It challenges the artist to see subtle angles and shapes. This class is for both the beginner and advanced artist wishing to learn about drawing and painting the portrait. The first five classes will focus on various angles of the model, general anatomy and defining the planes of the head. Demonstrations will be given. The first five classes will be taught in charcoal. The last three classes will be devoted to one long pose where instruction will be in oil painting.
