

Portrait Drawing & Painting

This class is for both beginner and advanced artist wishing to learn about drawing and painting the portrait. The first five classes will focus on positioning the model, general anatomy and defining the planes of the head. Demonstrations will be given. Beginners are encouraged to work in vine charcoal with white chalk. Advanced students may work in oil or a medium of their choice. There will be a variety of models: male, female, young and old, all rotating between the first 5 classes. The last FOUR classes will be devoted to one long pose giving students ample time to study the form. Students may continue with drawing or use this opportunity to paint.
